

What We Do

Antietam Institute sponsored conferences, symposiums, publications, leadership forums, and other activities facilitate collaborative learning and knowledge exchange, create unique opportunities for discovery and inspire further historical research.

How We Do It

- 🌀 Serves as a publishing house enhancing the knowledge and understanding of the Campaign with the biannual Antietam Journal, The Brigades of Antietam (2021), Artillery of Antietam (2022).
- 🌀 Hosts a one-day spring symposium showcasing some of the latest research and scholarship.
- 🌀 Provides educational opportunities through local academic internship.
- 🌀 Sponsors a weekend-long fall conference with leading experts examining new perspectives of the campaign.
- 🌀 Maintains the Historical Research Center (HRC), a digital repository of information related to the Maryland Campaign.
- 🌀 Supports local battlefield parks, preservation groups and other historical organizations.

THE ANTIETAM INSTITUTE MISSION

The Antietam Institute was established in 2021 as a member-based, educational, and philanthropic 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. The Institute educates the public on the central role of the 1862 Maryland Campaign and Battle of Antietam as a major turning point of the Civil War that directly resulted in the issuance of the preliminary Emancipation Proclamation.
